

Executive Vice President	David Dodds Company/Organization: Integrated Computer Solutions Inc.	Mr. David Dodds joined Integrated Computer Solutions Inc. in February of 2015 where here he is responsible for federal business growth. David spent over 20 years at Computer Sciences Corporation where he served in operations, capture, and business development roles. Prior to CSC he was a Director at Atlantic Research Corporation overseeing systems engineering and testing a role he also held at Systems and Applied Sciences Corporation prior to its becoming acquired by Atlantic Research Corporation. Previously he served as a civil servant for the U.S. Air Force working in the engineering directorate at Wright-Patterson Air Force base, where he rose to Chief Engineer for the B-52 Weapon System Trainer and KC-135 refueling tanker trainer and later black program simulators. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Systems Engineering from Wright State University and is a certified Project Management Professional as a well as a member of the Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association, National Defense Industrial Association, and Association of Proposal Management Professionals. David has been involved in various events over the years to include serving as the Daniel J. Curtis Memorial Golf Outing Chairperson.
---------------------------------	--	---