

Treasurer	John Garrity Company/Organization: Brixey & Meyer	Mr. John Garrity is a Certified Public Accountant and a Manager with the Dayton based regional accounting firm Brixey & Meyer. His passion for supporting area youth and those seeking higher education, as well as his professional background, led naturally to his current role as Treasurer of the Dayton-Wright chapter of AFCEA. In this role as Treasurer, John is responsible for coordinating with the Board of Directors, Executive Committee and Event Planning Chairs to ensure that the Chapter's finances remain in good order and that the Chapter remains in compliance with required IRS and State of Ohio filings necessary to retain the Chapter's non-profit status. In addition, John's role includes preparing the annual chapter budget, aiding in the determination of the annual scholarship awards and assisting Event Planning Chairs in preparing budgets for events sponsored by the Chapter.
